

Academic publishing of TEI Encoded Editions:

An Ongoing Survey of the Library Publishing Coalition

AIM: to quantify the extent of academic publishing of TEI editions

General engagement and partnership of digital humanities scholars and librarians on American campuses is demonstrably on the rise.

To what extent do academic libraries engage in the publishing of scholarly TEI editions? Why or Why not?

1. Identify to the range of publishing and other services offered by member libraries of the Library Publishing Coalition to TEI editors.
2. Identify success factors in cases where such support exists.
3. Identify key obstacles that prevent libraries from offering publishing services to editors

Margaret King, Peter Andorfer, Brian Rosenblum

ÖAW

AUSTRIAN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

KU
THE UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS